

On the Cultural Frontlines: Contemporary Trends in Israeli Art

Led by bestselling writer Ayelet Gundar-Goshen, whose Waking Lions was named one of the New York Times 100 Notable Books of 2017

Gundar-Goshen will conduct live interviews with some of Israel's most important artists in different disciplines.

The artists include Avner Bernheimer, who wrote the screenplay for Yossi and Jagger, a winner at the Tribeca Film Festival and several other international film festivals; Eshkol Nevo, the author of three bestselling novels; Keren Margalit, one of Israel's most successful writers and directors for television and Roy Chen, a theater dramaturg and novelist who also translates poetry and prose from Russian, French and English to Hebrew.

Gundar-Goshen's residency is supported by the Schusterman Visiting Israeli Artist Program.
